ABOUT ME •

I'm a South Florida native and seasoned real estate professional. I have amassed over 15 years of industry experience across multiple markets. My area of specialization includes REO (bank-owned homes) and distressed properties.

I have extensive expertise in handling all aspects of real estate transactions that go above and beyond the skills and experience of a traditional realtor. I can also help you proces deeds in lieu of foreclosure, short sales, and providing guidance on home retention options such as loan modifications.

NEGOTIATE YOUR SALE

Once an offer is made, your full-service realtor will negotiate the terms of the sale, and make sure absolutely everything is in your best interest.

The Miami real estate market continues to show resilience and promise amidst changing

Here are some key highlights:

1. Market Stability: Despite fluctuations in other markets, Miami's real estate sector remains stable, offering attractive opportunities for both buyers and sellers.

2. Price Trends: Prices in certain neighborhoods have seen moderate increases, reflecting strong demand and limited inventory. However, there are still pockets of affordability for savvy investors.

3. Inventory Levels: Inventory remains relatively low across various property types, leading to competitive bidding situations and faster sales.

4. Emerging Neighborhoods: Keep an eye on emerging neighborhoods that offer potential for growth and investment opportunities.

5. Mortgage Rates: Favorable mortgage rates continue to support buyer demand, making homeownership more accessible to a wider audience.

Your Next Steps: Whether you're considering buying, selling, or investing in Miami's dynamic real estate market, now is an opportune time to explore your options. As your trusted advisor, I'm here to provide personalized guidance and support every step of the way.

Jennie was amazing to work with! We first met Jennie at an open house, and we mentioned we would be looking to rent in 6 months. Jennie followed up a few months after our initial meeting to check in. She was attentive, listened to our needs and worked with us to find some wonderful options. She even went above and beyond by FaceTiming us from several properties since we were living out of state at the time. She is knowledgeable about the area and coming from MD, it was extremely important to work with someone who could guide us in the right direction. She helped us with everything from finding a property to drawing up the lease. We had a wonderful experience working with Jennie and we highly recommend her for any of your real estate needs!
